

Justices of the California Supreme Court

An election will be held on November 2, 2010. Pursuant to Article VI, section 16(a) of the California Constitution, the justices listed on the following page will stand for election to a full term of twelve years if this election coincides with the expiration of their term. If not standing for a full term, the term for which they are running is noted. Cal. Const., art. VI, § 16(a)

Justices of the California Supreme Court may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed to the office presently held by the justice. This declaration is filed between July 16, 2010, and August 15, 2010*. If the declaration is not filed, the Governor, before September 16, 2010, shall nominate a candidate. At the next general election, only the candidate so declared or nominated may appear on the ballot. Cal. Const., art. VI, § 16(d)(1), § 8201

The declaration may be in the form of a letter, may be on office stationery, must say that the justice is a candidate to succeed himself or herself, and must be signed by the justice. Unless instructed otherwise, the Secretary of State will certify the candidate's name as signed on the declaration of candidacy.

In addition to filing the declaration, each justice must pay a nonrefundable filing fee of two percent of the first year's salary for the office. §§ 8103(a)(1), 8105(a)

In lieu of the payment of the filing fee, each justice may submit a petition containing signatures of 10,000 registered voters. The signatures submitted may cover all or a prorated portion of the filing fee. That portion of the filing fee not covered by signatures must be paid in full before the declaration of candidacy may be filed. §§ 8105(a), 8106(a)(3) & (b)(3)

Each justice may obtain the petition for signatures in lieu of the filing fee from the appropriate county elections official from June 1, 2010, through July 31, 2010*. The last day to file these petitions is July 31, 2010*. Any registered voter may sign such a petition for any and for each justice. If the petition is circulated in more than one county, the justice shall submit the signatures to the county elections official of the county in which the petition was circulated. § 8106(b)(1), (b)(3) & (b)(4)

NOTE: If a justice standing for confirmation does not receive any campaign contributions and the only expenditure made will be the justice's personal funds for the filing fee, then the justice is not required to file Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Forms 410 and 501. However, any justice who will be on the ballot must file campaign disclosure statements. For information about the campaign disclosure provisions, call the FPPC at (866) 275-3772 or the Secretary of State's Political Reform Division at (916) 653-6224.

Supreme Court Justices—Terms of Office

Justices are appointed to 12-year terms. Following their appointment and confirmation by the Commission on Judicial Appointments, they must go before the voters for a retention election at the first gubernatorial election following their confirmation and then again every 12 years. The Justices highlighted in bold type will be on their November 2, 2010, ballot for retention.

Justices of the California Courts of Appeal

An election will be held on November 2, 2010. Pursuant to Article VI, section 16(a) of the California Constitution, the justices listed on the following pages will stand for election to a full term of twelve years if this election coincides with the expiration of their term. If not standing for a full term, the term for which they are running is noted. Cal. Const., art. VI, § 16(a)

Justices of the California Courts of Appeal may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed to the office presently held by the justice. This declaration is filed between July 16, 2010, and August 15, 2010*. If the declaration is not filed, the Governor, before September 16, 2010, shall nominate a candidate. At the next general election, only the candidate so declared or nominated may appear on the ballot. Cal. Const., art. VI, § 16(d)(1), § 8201

The declaration may be in the form of a letter, may be on office stationery, must say that the justice is a candidate to succeed himself or herself, and must be signed by the justice. Unless instructed otherwise, the Secretary of State will certify the candidate's name as signed on the declaration of candidacy.

In addition to filing the declaration, each justice must pay a nonrefundable filing fee of one percent of the first year's salary for the office. §§ 8103(a)(2), 8105(a)

In lieu of the payment of the filing fee, each justice may submit a petition containing signatures of 8,184 registered voters. The signatures submitted may cover all or a prorated portion of the filing fee. That portion of the filing fee not covered by signatures must be paid in full before the declaration of candidacy may be filed. §§ 8105(a), 8106(a)(4) & (b)(3)

Each justice may obtain the petition for signatures in lieu of the filing fee from the appropriate county elections official from June 1, 2010, through July 31, 2010*. The last day to file these petitions is July 31, 2010*. Any registered voter may sign such a petition for justice for whom he or she is eligible to vote. If the petition is circulated in more than one county, the justice shall submit the signatures to the county elections official of the county in which the petition was circulated. § 8106(b)(1), (b)(3) & (b)(4)

NOTE: If a justice standing for confirmation does not receive any campaign contributions and the only expenditure made will be the justice's personal funds for the filing fee, then the justice is not required to file Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Forms 410 and 501. However, any justice who will be on the ballot must file campaign disclosure statements.
